

Class Name Keshet

Theme: Ecosystems (weathers birds and bats)

Week of: May 22, 2017

Letter of the Week: review

	Activity	Skills
Circle Time	Calendar, weather, alphabet, colors and numbers with music and movement songs Watch a video of the UF Bat House Practice our “moving up” songs. Talk about our favorite memories of prek.	Math: number recognition and counting Science: meteorology, weather, seasons Phonics and sound recognition. Singing, working together, performance
Math and Science Time	Make a collage of the Florida Ecosystems. Work on “counting down” for the last days of school. Review our numbers/shapes.	Cut and paste All about Florida, biology and ecosystems Number recognition, counting, shapes.
Language Arts Expression	Try reading site words in small group (Bob Books) Finish/read our animal alphabet books. Make a giant class “keshet” with handprints. Make an autograph book to sign with our friends.	Rhyming and letter blending Early Reading Letters, blending, phonics, storytelling. Writing
Fancy Footwork	Soccer Shots Mondays Mindful Moments for Kids Yoga Practice a cheer for the “Moving Up” ceremony	Gross motor skills, social skills, physical fitness and well-being Following directions and exploration Coordination.
Torah Time	Tikkun Olam for personal relationships Make a tzedakah container for home	tzedakah/being kind
Story time	Have You Seen My Duckling? by Nancy Tafuri Who Will Be My Pet by Stan Tusan Fish is Fish by Leo Lionni A Porcupine Named Fluffy by Helen Lester	Print knowledge and literacy Concepts of print, recall, vocabulary.

Home Activity: Draw a picture of your favorite PreK memory.